

Victoria Plummer

Victoria Plummer is a recording artist, songwriter, and dancer from Indianapolis, IN. She wanted to be a singer from her youngest days and has been training with a vocal coach since the age of 7. By 8 years old she was performing, and had already recorded songs that received airplay across major markets in Europe.

After being a five-time talent winner for Miss American Coed, two times state Outstanding Performer in show choir, appearing in a show every October in Vegas, and multiple dance and theater leads, she chose to make the move to Los Angeles to advance her career. Victoria booked her very first audition within a week of living in LA as the lead in an international touring musical.

As a singer, song writer she is collaborating with other artists on numerous film projects.

Recent accomplishments Include:

Sharing the same stage with Arianna Grande, new super girl group GRL, collaborated on a duet with hit Artist/Songwriter Ray Dalton (Macklemore's "Ceiling Can't Hold Us" over 7 x platinum, Thrift Shop, etc), and already worked with hit music producers and writers like Jazze Pha, Boy Reklus, Lars Halvor and Deekay, Young Yonny, and other artists.

Victoria also recently starred in the lead role of Cinderella in a production of Roger & Hammerstein's Cinderella, General in King Lear, Judy in Chorus Line, Mary in Mary Poppins, all performed at popular Los Angeles theaters from March - Oct 2016, and also was in the role of Ivy, the female Lead in Bare at MTLA Riverside.

Victoria Plummer also sings "A Better Tomorrow" which will be featured in the upcoming film, based on the novella "The Last Christmas Ride." Victoria is also a member of the Alliance for Women in Media (<http://allwomeninmedia.org>).
