

Dave Alan Johnson Bio

Dave Alan Johnson is a co-founder and the creative head of Salt Entertainment.

One national critic said of Johnson's work: "This is the kind of show we might get if Norman Rockwell were alive and could write scripts as well as he painted." Newsweek called his work "a true dramatic gem." His projects have received enthusiastic critical acclaim from every corner of the nation and he has been honored with many awards. He is known within the Hollywood industry and beyond as someone who creates content with honesty and humor that speaks to the hearts and minds of people everywhere.

A former President of Warner Bros. Television says Dave's "prolific ability to create and write quality scripts, coupled with his show-running talent, places him among the best writer/producers in the industry."

The president of another one of the world's largest media companies said, "Dave understands what the audience wants and knows how to give it to them! And working with him is always a great experience."

In the two plus decades he has worked in Hollywood, Dave has created, produced, written, or directed nearly a half billion dollars' worth of entertainment. He has collaborated with some of Hollywood's top names (including teaming up with Steven Spielberg to Co-Create and Executive Produce DreamWorks' premier television production - the ABC hit drama, High Incident). He has created product (in both television and movies) for virtually every major entertainment company including Disney, Paramount, Sony, Warner Brothers, DreamWorks, MGM, FOX, ABC, NBC, CBS, and others.

For more information visit: www.saltentertainmentgroup.com

Steve McBeth Bio

Steve McBeth is a co-founder and the business head at Salt Entertainment. In his role, he has overall responsibility for business operations at the company, including marketing and business development for Salt titles. Also, as part of his duties at Salt Entertainment, Steve is business advisor to Jon and Andy Erwin, producers and directors of the films October Baby, Moms' Night Out, and Woodlawn. Steve also is serving as co-lead of the national marketing team for the Woodlawn theatrical release (release date October 16, 2015).

Steve was a senior executive with the Walt Disney Company for 18 years, and was the founding president of Disney Interactive Worldwide, the division responsible for all Internet and online operations, computer games and CD-ROM products. He was also executive vice president for the Disney Consumer Products division for nearly a decade, with operating responsibility for all merchandise, publishing, music and ancillary consumer business operations for the Walt Disney Company.

After his time at Disney, Steve was a business development consultant for Scripps Networks, a leader in cable TV programming (Food Network/HGTV). His work there involved developing branding and merchandising opportunities, as well as advising on digital and online strategies.

For more information visit: www.saltentertainmentgroup.com

Edie Hand

Edie Hand is a businesswoman, speaker, television celebrity and author. She has authored, co-authored or assisted in the development of more than 20 books. Her personal titles include inspirational books, cookbooks and novellas. The business world knows Edie for her many acts of kindness and work in various charities.

Edie has starred in national commercials, daytime television soaps, and has hosted numerous radio and television shows nationwide. She has been the CEO of Hand N' Hand Advertising, Inc. since 1976 while actively involved in the Alliance for Women in Media (known as American Women in Radio & Television) for more than 40 years.

The Edie Hand Foundation was created after the loss of her three young brothers and her numerous battles with cancer. Edie's mission is to help make life better for others. The foundation helps to benefit The Children's Hospital of Alabama, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Memphis, TN, and assists with education and supplies for orphans in Asia through the Ramini Kids Foundation.

She is the founder of The Genuine Pearl Girl Society whose mission is to encourage more acts of kindness to mankind.

Edie recently formed Nashville based Hand 'N Hand Entertainment, Inc. to develop global films, music projects, and television programming. She is a 40 year veteran in developing radio, television, and film projects. Edie's family heritage is rich in song writing, acting, and music from the Hacker family and her legendary cousin, Elvis Presley.

Edie is an alumnus of the University of North Alabama, and her only son, Linc Hand, lives in Hollywood, California.

Learn more about Edie on these websites:

EdieHand.com, GenuinePearlGirls.com & EdieHandFoundation.org

Email: ediemaehand@gmail.com
p: 205-960-1345 f: 205-648-3426

LINC HAND

Born and raised in Birmingham, Alabama, Linc Hand grew up being cast in local and national commercials through his Mom's advertising agency since he was six years old.

After moving to Los Angeles, Linc began to explore his love of acting further by studying with legendary coach Howard Fine.

A life-long athlete, Linc's love of sports was nurtured by his father at a young age. Linc excelled at football, basketball, and martial arts, but it would be baseball that ultimately brought Linc's passions together. Linc's natural athleticism made him a perfect fit to play Fritz Ostermueller, one of Jackie Robinson's primary antagonists in the 2013 hit feature, 42.

Linc's television work has been seen on CBS, HBO, FX, and The CW. He was most recently seen on CBS's NCIS as Navy Petty Officer First Class Damien Hunter. He also joined ABC's Revenge as a recurring character during the show's final 2013/14 story arc.

Linc has been featured in numerous live comedy bits on ABC's Jimmy Kimmel Live, and he worked side by side with Stephen Merchant in late 2013 when he guest starred on HBO's Hello Ladies.

Linc's serious side was seen starring alongside Adrian Grenier, Ben McKenzie, and Kid Cudi in the 2014 feature, Goodbye World, which opened in limited release on April 5, 2014.

Linc is also heading up Hand 'N Hand Entertainment, a company focusing on developing film, music, and web oriented projects.

Linc has currently appeared in over 43 films. He continues to be busy and has four films and TV Series episodes that have been completed or are in post-production.

Coming to theaters in 2016, Linc is in a film called "Imperium" with Daniel Radcliffe who portrays an undercover FBI agent.

Some of the above information taken from Linc's - IMDb Mini Biography

Website: www.linchand.com

Linc Hand Information on IMDB: www.imdb.com/name/nm1915289/

"42" The Jackie Robinson Story
Fritz Ostermueller
Pittsburgh Pirates Pitcher portrayed by
Linc Hand

